PROF. JNO. HOWARD.
Above is the likeness of Prof. Jno. Howard of Jefferson City, Mo., whom we have secured as Representative of the Kansas City Sun. Prof. Howard is now conducting a beautiful Ice Cream Parlor and the Pullman Hotel for celebrated people at Jefferson City in the heart of the city, opposite the Court House, and serves a first class meal at all hours night or day. Extra good service. Modern rooms—only one block from the Missouri Pacific Station. Prof. Howard would be delighted to have you stop at the Pullman Hotel on your next visit to Jefferson City.

DALTON, MO.
Owing to our necessity of building the new Boys' Dormitory and completing other necessary school equipments, we had to close the Academic School Friday, April 3rd, at the end of a most successful seven months' session. We had a very practical and Verlie Payne and Lilly Payne, Armstrong, Mo., received the first diploma issued in the history of the school, the B. H. E. (Bachelors of Home Economics) diploma. Bessie Harrelson, Clifton Hill, Mo., was granted an honorary certificate for "Industrial Efficiency in Home Economics." The Spring and Summer Farm School opens April 6th for five months, and until September. The Academic and Literary departments for 1914-15 will open in the new building September 23rd next. The future of this Missouri-West Rural Life School for our people is very encouraging.

CHILLICOTHE, MO.
The funeral of Mrs. Stewart, who died of pneumonia last Tuesday morning, was held at the A. M. E. Church Wednesday morning with Revs. Oakes and Talley officiating. The body was shipped to Breckenridge, Mo., for burial. The deceased, who was a devout Christian and mother, is survived by a son, Mr. Stewart of Breckenridge, Mo., and a daughter, Mrs. Snowden, of this city, and to them we extend sympathy. It was with pleasure that we learned of a hopeful change in following persons who have been seriously ill for several days: Mr. Wallace Rowland, Prof. Wm. Longdon, and Mrs. Deney. Mr. Henry Longdon, Jr., who was graduated from the Meharry Pharmaceutical College of Walden University this year, spent several days with parents last week. A spring revival was opened at the A. M. E. Church Monday night, Rev. D. W. Oakes, the local ministers and loyal members are drawing largely upon their stock of faith and hope for a successful meeting. We are looking forward to a glorious celebration at our Churches Easter Sunday. The Bachelor Girls Club was entertained by Miss Ethel Alex Saturday afternoon. The guest of honor Mrs. Almyra Jones spoke encouragingly of the manner in which the afternoon was spent and was delighted with the luncheon served by the hostess. The Garrison Patron's League met at the A. M. E. Church Thursday night. President Lucius Sawyer expressed his surprise upon seeing so many who had braved the rain and threatening clouds and welled the attendance. The excellent program rendered was a recompense. It consisted of vocal solos by Misses Oletha Brown and Alice Talley; a violin solo by Mr. Roy Page; a select reading by Mrs. Katie Vance; an intelligent discussion revealing the benefits derived from industrial and literary education by Miss Odessa Hillman and Mr. Benj. V. Longdon, and the literary advocates, Prof. Wm. Longdon and Mr. Herbert Beach, all served to replenish the fires of interest and enthusiasm.

HIGGINSVILLE, MO.
Sunday, March 29, was observed as "Everybody go to Church Day." All of the Churches were well attended. Rev. H. Green, pastor of the A. M. E. Church, preached excellent sermons to a large and appreciative audience at morning and evening services. Mrs. H. Green entertained the Aid Society Wednesday. After a regular routine of business a dainty repast was served. Rev. U. B. Johnson of Osage, Mo., was guest. The next meeting at Mrs. Celia Evans, April 8th. A special Easter program was arranged by Mrs. Green and the young ladies for Sunday at 8 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Perry were guests at dinner with Mrs. Annis Britt. Mrs. Minnie Mitchell of Salt Lake City, Utah, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Arthur Groves. Mrs. Maggie Matthews received the sad intelligence of the death of her sister at Slater, Mo. She left for Slater Sunday evening. Prof. Wm. Hobbs, principal of Douglass School, spent the week end in Marshall, Mo., with his family.

HARRISONVILLE, MO.
Messrs. Jno. Lee and Cyrus Vernon attended a meeting of the Masonic lodge at Holden last week. Mrs. Mary E. Davis and daughter of Flagstaff, Ariz., are visiting relatives and friends here. They were called home on account of the death of Mrs. Davis mother. Reginald Wallace was a visitor in our school Monday. He is a pupil of one of the leading public schools in Arizona and a very bright boy. Master Ralph Kellogg Jacobs is making good with his work at the postoffice. Florence Hazel Lee, Cleopatra Page, Leta Mae Elliott and Ralph K. Jacobs will complete the eighth year grammar school course this term and be awarded diplomas. The parents should make strong efforts and great sacrifices to give them a good course in a modern high school.

FARMINGTON, MO.
The Ivy Leaf Club was entertained very pleasantly Wednesday evening by Miss Amy Busch. The married ladies' industrial was very pleasantly entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Louise Anthony. Mr. Moses Hunt returned from Cape Girardeau Thursday, after attending the sick bed of his brother and Mr. Hunt was taken ill immediately upon his return home. He was called Sunday to Cape Girardeau on the expectation of the death of his brother. Mrs. Virgie Simms and sister of St. Louis arrived Saturday to make her home here. Mr. A. A. Simms of St. Louis arrived Monday on a business trip. Mr. Thos. Cayce came in Monday to spend a few days with Mrs. Cayce. Mrs. Chas. Swink of Minneth arrived Sunday on a visit with relatives and friends. The Clover Bee Club was very uniquely entertained Thursday by Miss Mable Meyers. Mesdames L. Maul, G. Robinson and F. Maul were visitors in the city Sunday, attending Sunday services. Queen of Honor Court No. 33, observed Palm Sunday by having services at the A. M. E. Church. Rev. S. B. Anderson preached an eloquent and illustrative sermon for the Court. Mrs. Laura Kennedy went to Charleston Saturday to spend the week in her trade. Mr. Arthur Murphy returned to De Soto Saturday after a week's visit with Mr. Jno. Kennedy.

MARYVILLE, MO.
Thos. Jackson, Jr., the 13-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Jackson, died Friday, March 27, of indigestion. The funeral was held Saturday, March 28, at the home, the Rev. D. A. Brown officiating. Mrs. P. Thomas is ill. Miss Isabell Palmer has been ill for the past week. Prof. E. O. Boone visited parents at Booneville, Mo. Mrs. Bessie Maulding of Organ, Mo., returned home after spending the winter in Mayville, Mo. Mr. Augustus Romanus, the Republican candidate for mayor, was born and reared in Maryville, Mo., and from a boy was always a friend to the colored people and remains so, and has the hearty support of the colored voters. The school was opened Monday after being closed for ten days on account of the scarlet fever. Not a case among the colored people was reported.

SPRINGFIELD, MO.
Miss Ethel Jackson of Kansas City returned home after a three weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. D. A. Holmes, 817 Washington avenue. She was guest of honor at many social affairs. Sunday, March 22, Mrs. Fred Williams, 830 Summit avenue, entertained with a four-course dinner, Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Holmes, Mrs. Clayton of Wichita, Kas., Miss Jackson of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Folsen of St. Louis, Mo. March 24 the choir of the Washington Avenue Baptist Church entertained for Miss Ethel Jackson. The Kennington Art Club met Thursday, March 26 with the Misses Purdie and Pernice Adams. Among those who entertained for Miss Ethel Jackson were Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Harris on March 25, the Misses Rosalie Franklin, Essie Oliver and Blanche Brown on March 30, Mrs. D. A. Holmes, April 1, and Miss Marie Stemmmons, April 1. A delightful time was had at all functions.

PLEASANT HILL, MO.
Mr. and Mrs. Ishmael Clark are rejoicing the arrival of a son. Mrs. Minnie Bryant spent the week end in Kansas City visiting with her two daughters. Prof. and Mrs. E. W. Turner spent Sunday in Liberty guests of Prof. and Mrs. J. A. Gay. The Heroines of Jericho celebrated Palm Sunday in their usually elaborate manner at Wayman Chapel, A. M. E. church. One of the most impressive features of the service was the singing of their beautiful anthems and quartettes. Uniformity in dress by the assembled membership of the order proved very impressive.

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, MO.
Mr. McKnight is improving. Miss Clela White died Saturday night and her remains were sent to Utica for burial. J. Knight returned from Kansas City, where he was recently married. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Mablon are preparing for their spring opening. Mr. Oliver Walker left for Kansas City Tuesday. Mrs. E. Mablon gave a fashionable dance at the Choppenko Hall on Monday night and was well attended. Mr. Baylis will visit Western University next week. Rev. Hillman will take charge of Main Street Baptist Church Sunday. Prof. Foster and Prof. Allen of Western University were here last week on business. Mr. Washington returned to Omaha. Miss Ada McAfee and sister are the guests of Mrs. Miller.
